

QUESTION 1: What are experiences with TFGBV in your context and what are its' effects/impacts?

Reflect, exchange, and document key take-aways. Please remember to provide location/country of the SDC COOF as applicable.

AGNIESZKA KROSKOWSKA JAN 23, 2023 08:00AM UTC

Group 1

TF GBV Experiences

TF GBV Effects/ Impacts

3 Key Takeaways for Plenary

distressful; it depends on the level of engagement on the cyber world. The younger they are the more they are involved.

Kosovo: upcoming project which also includes addressing cyber violence especially for public activists/women in politics - Empowering women in politics
Kosovo has a lively civil society and freedom of speech; needs some controlling

Nepal: not yet taken up in projects; opportunities possibly in political empowerment and GBV projects

Group 2

TF GBV Experiences

TF GBV Effects/ Impacts

3 Key Takeaways for Plenary

Public shaming and cyberviolence is acknowledged by civil society, political actors

Equip women how to handle the Cyperpresence; work with political parties to equip to prevent and react; work with male party leaders
Media: training raising for journalists, code of ethics and more space ; GBV in public space

Group 3

TF GBV Experiences

TF GBV Effects/ Impacts

3 Key Takeaways for Plenary

TF GBV Experience

Nepal and Kosovo both have high number of cyber threats and hate especially of women politicians; including body shaming and humiliation

Generally against women not only politicians; generally very

Group 4

TF GBV Experiences

TF GBV Effects/ Impacts

3 Key Takeaways for Plenary

Aserbaidshan: preventing use of technology; harassment through Uber; hate speech during elections in Moldova, "blue whale" impact: women reducing their presence in online spaces, reducing their engagement in public spaces; self-sensorship; legal vacuum; service providers are not trained

Group 5

TF GBV Effects/ Impacts

TF GBV Experiences

3 Key Takeaways for Plenary
